Let me introduce myself

I'm happy to meet you, Dear

I'd love to learn your feelings

About all that you read here

Indeed

I'm going through

Something new

And I'm happy

About it, too

Don't know exactly

Where it will lead

But I am excited

Yes, indeed

I'm going to write

For all to read me

I'm going to paint

For all to see me

I love life

And people too

So let's be friends

Me and You

Joy

What does “retire” mean to me

It means creating my own destiny

It means living the life I want to live

And enjoying all others, who have so much to give

Delight

I could go on

All day and all night

With my writing

And feeling delight

But I know from the past

I need to sleep

I'll soon go to bed

My words will keep

Retire

I planned on retiring

At age 83

Retire from what?

I'm now asking me

Retire from what?

What is my goal?

My goal is to relax

And share the thoughts of my Soul

And what do you think

Of what I say

I would like to get to know you

What do You say?

Wrong

What is wrong with me?

Nothing that you can see

But in my mind, you will find

A question mark for Me

Shabbot

Shabbot is the day

To unwind

To rest yourself

Both body and mind

Human

I don't really know

What to say

But I hope life for all of us

Is blessed every day

And if life is now

Special with love

Let's thank our Creator

Way up above

Spirit

Thank you dear Holy One

I thank you. I do

For the gift of the spirit

So I can thank you

Odd

There is much

That I don't know

And you may

Think this odd

But the heavens

And Earth

I don't really know

And I call them God

Hand

Let's make the best

Of our lives

And live in peace

So we can survive

We must work

So we can eat

And have food, clothes and shelter

And make our lives complete

Let's pray for those

Who live in fear

And try to help them

Year after year

And education

And charity too

And loving kindness

Let's all try to do

Let's do our best

And do what we can

To give all who need it

A helping hand

I'll finish by saying

So long to you
